Mobile Career Center Ribbon-Cutting Ceremony

February 21, 2019

The new, state-of-the-art Mobile Career Center was unveiled at a ribbon-cutting ceremony in the parking lot at the Staples Career Center.

The Mobile Career Center will expand our workforce services to the rural communities and to area employers by offering a "Career Center on Wheels" to virtually any location.

If you would like the Mobile Career Center to visit your community, please email shelby.simms@workforcesolutionscb.org.

"State-of-the-Art Career Center on Wheels!"

Women Empowered (WE) Summit Was A Huge Success!

March 23, 2019

Women Empowered (WE) Summit participants heard from top influencers, including Chair and Commissioner Representing Employers of the Texas Workforce Commission, Ruth R. Hughes who helped launch the event.

Attendees learned key principles to apply to their personal and professional lives throughout this day-long summit. With the overwhelming success of this year's event, plans are underway to bring the WE Summit back in 2020!

Over 200 Empowered Women In Attendance!

AIISD and CCISD Receive Jobs and Education for Texans (JET) Grants

March 27, 2019

The Texas Workforce Commission awarded both Alice Independent School District (AIISD) and Corpus Christi Independent School District (CCISD) with Jobs and Education for Texans (JET) Grants in March 2019.

These grants will help AIISD purchase equipment necessary for training certified nursing assistants and provide CCISD with equipment to train for careers in the welding profession.

For more information on how you can apply for a JET Grant, email jetgrants@twc.state.tx.us.

CCISD Awarded $282,766!

March 22, 2019

AIISD Awarded $71,015!
