HURRICANE HARVEY RELIEF INITIATIVE

Workforce Solutions of the Coastal Bend (WFSCB) has received targeted funding to help people affected by Hurricane Harvey. The Hurricane Harvey Relief Initiative is designated to rebuild impacted cities, counties, schools and other eligible damaged property.

The National Dislocated Worker Grant provides funds to support the temporary employment needs in specific counties by working with government and community based organizations to identify qualifying jobs and connect qualifying dislocated workers to fill those jobs.

These relief jobs last up to a year (or 2,080 hours) and job seekers may also qualify for training to prepare them for available positions. Self-employed workers may be eligible as well. Short term training is available.

JOB SEEKERS

The Hurricane Harvey Relief Initiative has many temporary jobs to benefit communities by providing additional workers to supplement their staff during disaster recovery.

To be eligible for the Hurricane Harvey Relief Initiative, you must live in one of the declared disaster area counties or you have been forced to relocate due to disaster or emergency events.

ELIGIBLE COUNTIES
